

To his Excellency Charles Earl Talbot, &c.
Lord Lieutenant General & General Governor Ireland

National Archives, Ireland

➔ Relaunch of Updated Website ➔

ONLINE CATALOGUE

Chief Secretary's Office Registered Papers

1818 - 1830

cannot be demanded, but on two days of the Week - Wednesday & Saturday, as no other market days are mentioned in the charter.

That in consequence of this refusal, the Mayor by advice of Council, he continued, to make every exertion to enforce the amount of toll in kind, as usual, on the intermediate days. In which, he has been resisted and abused, his constables & officers threatened, & such force & resistance given to them that they are utterly inadequate to overcome, without having recourse to military assistance; from which the Mayor has studiously refrain'd, he has used explanation, & every conciliatory measure, but without success.

That there remains no doubt upon the minds of your Petitioners; the farmers are urged, to this opposition, & suppose that any man of superior rank in life, & any man of any name or mention, that has been in the County of this County.

usage, they continue to declare, he, their Landlord

With 33,500 documents Online

Make time now to discover more Irish History